The beach of Tsoutsoura is a few kilometers from Kastri 60 kilometers from Heraklion and. The settlement of Tsoutsoura was built on the ruins of the ancient city of Inatos and the whole area is characterized by intense archaeological interest. The beach is large, sandy and clean. Near the beach Tsoutsoura, there are other equally remarkable beaches with clear waters and beautiful views of the Libyan sea. An example is Maridaki that is located close to Tsoutsoura. The only way to get there is through a rough country road. The duration of the trip by car is about half an hour, you can also reach Maridaki by the sea.
